Co-Presidents Ponderings

I am aware that genealogy attracts followers from the serious to the much more casual. I fall into the latter category. My late mother spent many an hour researching her family tree through discussion groups and 'on the ground' fossicking through the likes of parish records whilst on holiday in the UK. I have a large collection of hand written correspondence with fellow enthusiasts in NZ and overseas. She put together a hand drawn family tree which I have transferred into My Heritage, one of a number of programs available to take the slog out of an otherwise painstaking task. Gwen was particularly proud of this photo she unearthed, of British musical royalty with one of her cousins, a Viscountess no less!

The highlights for me include a direct relative 7 times removed who was a Rear Admiral Royal Navy and had a son who was a full Admiral. In turn his wife's nephew was a Vice-admiral. I had no knowledge of this prior to joining the RNZN but clearly had the call of the sea in my genes. I'm sure a number of our members have similar stories to tell. Some may not even realise it.

I look forward to hearing from our August guest speaker, Genealogist Morag Hughson. She may inspire me to put a little more effort into continuing my mother's hard work.

We are struggling to attract new members. I encourage you all to invite any friend or acquaintance to take advantage of our free guest voucher for guests and partner or friend to one of our monthly meetings. YOUR CLUB NEEDS YOU.

Yours Aye, Doug Guthrie

Hi everyone.

I had a fabulous time on my trip around Europe and the UK, but I'm so pleased to be back in NZ. However bad you think things are here, they are just as bad or much worse overseas.

I'm really looking forward to hearing from our next speaker, having done a bit of family history myself in the past. As I come from Penzance, you won't be surprised to hear that my great uncle x9 was a pirate and, as he died in Jamaica, we could say we are related to a Pirate from the Caribbean. The actual truth of the matter is more prosaic as he was a privateer in Queen Anne's Royal Navy and made a fortune by capturing a French Navy ship -none of which came down to his descendants, more's the pity. But it makes a good story.

Keep well and warm. See you all on the 10th August.

Regards Sue Rawson

OMANU REBUS CLUB OUTINGS

Our mid-winter lunch was thoroughly enjoyed by all our members that were able to come. Our numbers were down due to unexpected sickness but there was also a case of four members not showing up. Please be aware that when you receive a reminder about an outing that makes it clear your name is on the list, we are expecting you to honour that commitment. The venue at Club Mount was spacious, the food was delicious, and as the only guests, we were able to talk easily without competing with other diners.

August Wednesday 16 August Port of Tauranga Tour: We have extended the opportunity to join us in the tour of the Port of Tauranga not only to the Papamoa Garden Circle, but also to members of Beachside U3A, and we are pleased that we have had a good response to our invitation. This has meant that we have been able to book a larger (and more comfortable) bus and bring the price down to $20 per person. We think this is excellent value for an opportunity that is not readily available to the general public. There is still room for more people, so if you wish to add your name to our list, or invite friends or neighbours, please let me know. You must have photo ID (e.g. drivers' licence or passport) and not have mobility issues (this is a safety requirement from the Port authorities in case of urgent evacuation from the bus).

Detour Theatre Friday 15 September or Wednesday 20 September: You will be asked to choose which date you prefer as our usual night, Thursday, is either the date of our main September meeting (Thursday 14th) or the date of our Wine and Dine night (Thursday 21st).

“Murdered to Death” by Peter Gordon: A hilarious murder-mystery spoof with an assembled cast of characters guaranteed to delight: Bunting the butler, an English Colonel with the prerequisite stiff upper lip, a shady French art dealer and his moll, bumbling local inspectors and a well meaning local sleuth who seems to attract murder - they're all here, and all caught up in the side-splitting antics which follow the mysterious death at a country manor house. But will the murderer be unmasked before everyone else has met their doom, or will audiences die laughing first?*

Wednesday 25 October Keep this date free for a bus and/or walk outing

Sunday 26 November Christmas Lunch: 12 noon Papamoa Beach Village: We have booked to return to last year's venue as it was such a popular choice - again at a venue where the noise factor is minimal and with excellent food, and friendly service. Undoubtedly a favourite with all the committee and we think, with all our members!

Thursday 30 November We had had an early indication that we can expect an invitation from the Papamoa Garden Circle to join them on a full day bus trip to the Waihi/Waikino area. These are always well organised and give us the opportunity to visit some gardens and areas that we would normally miss out on. Keep this date free too!

NB: Payments for club outings and subs can be made direct to the Club's bank account – 03-1547-0010549-00. Please put your name and the outing in the reference and particulars fields.
