President's Corner

Hi there

Hope you are all keeping fit and well.

This month's planned speakers have raised some questions amongst a few members.

Speakers are selected each month for their entertainment, quality of presentation, genre and educational value.

We aim to mix them up to make it appealing and worth your while to come along.

We steer away from political issues, religious discussion and not too many health lectures.

This month we are looking at the unique culture we have in New Zealand.

I know some people shy away from acceptance of the recent increase in the use of te reo in aspects of our media. That's a personal matter and we all respect your views.

At our November meeting we are trying to understand and improve the pronunciation of the words regularly used in our daily language. Nothing more.

I would ask you to ponder this and treat it as a fun educational experience.

December's entertainment will be the Oceanside Music Group who will return to give us some great music.

Please wear a mask when you come into the building. You can take it off when you are in the Golf Club's meeting room. You are also welcome to leave it on if you feel uncomfortable without it. There is no prescribed social distancing.

Regards

Graeme Wilson

The price of $37 is the cost of just the meal and the club is subsidising the remainder of the costs including the venue hire fee and the cost of the hamper prize.

Theatre Outing "Swingers" a 16th Avenue Theatre production for the Christmas season with a warning "adult comedy"! Cost $23.50 per person.

Ralph, Archie and George have been golf buddies for donkeys' years and now they're retired and spending more time than ever on the course and in the 19th hole. Their long-suffering "golf widows" have had enough! The girls want to enjoy their golden and years and put some spice back into their lives. George has to accept he is no longer the Sean Connery of the Happy Valley Golf Club. His golf-widow, wife Flo enjoys nothing better than going to bed with a good book, while George is banished to another room because he snores.

Archie may struggle to keep up with the pace wife Pam sets in the boudoir, but at least he and George acknowledge the "happy wife, happy life" principle. Bombastic Ralph, on the other hand, has yet to learn that lesson. When wife Mabel wants to join the other gals for a salsa class, Ralph puts his foot down – and Mabel leaves.

Golf then is really just a vehicle for this chip shot out of the old rocky relationship bunker? Can these old timers get their marriages out of the bunker? Who will win the battle of the sexes? Will the game drive a wedge between them? Is there sex after 65? This play is for both lovers and haters of the gentleman's game!

Anyone interested in going to see this play please choose which date suits you best and indicate this on the list at the meeting. The dates chosen (Friday 26th November, Wednesday 8th, Thursday 9th or Friday 10th December) reflect that Jim and I will be away at the beginning of December. We want to go and hope that you will join us!
