Welcome: Acting President – Graeme Wilson

Speaker:

Our Guest Speaker, Lizzie Thompson, is a Masters student at Waikato University Marine Research station, and she will discuss the wide range of fish and sea creatures that inhabit our ocean in the area. This will cover the top echelon of the hierarchy.

She is also studying the progress in the regeneration of the Astrolabe Reef which was hit by the Rena in October 2011, the topic for her Masters, and will provide us with an update. Don't miss this informative and fascinating talk.

Vote of Thanks: Graeme Wilson

OMANU REBUS OUTINGS

Rose reporting: Four of our members attended the Rebus NZ AGM in Palmerston North in May. I know that AGM's always sound boring, to be avoided if at all possible, but the weekend away was most enjoyable – but would have been better if the weather had been warmer! We enjoyed finger food and company at the Meet and Greet at the Citz Club on Friday night, and the four of us decided against the offered bus tour as it included a trip to the Rugby Museum – not our thing on Saturday morning. Instead we did our own tour including a ride on the miniature railway around the Esplanade, which included a guided tour of the museum rail sheds. It was most interesting – the engines are all accurate replicas of working engines and the ride through the riverside planting through varied vegetation was very pleasant. The four of us then strolled along the riverside pathway to a mobile coffee stand, started by students, which was doing a very busy trade especially with pupa chinos – our four-legged friends were lined up and salivating waiting for their treat! After our coffees it was a leisurely stroll back to the car park in order to be back to the motel in time for lunch. After lunch we attended the AGM, which included a valuable discussion on travel insurance. Rebus NZ no longer offer travel insurance to members, but very much advise "shopping around" to get the best deal, especially if you have health issues to cover. Later that evening we reconvened at the Citz Club where we enjoyed good food and company for the evening. So you see, AGM's need not be boring, but very enjoyable instead!

June: Detour Theatre, Historic Village, 17th Avenue Tauranga: Thursday 26th June, 7.30 pm.

"The Importance of Being Earnest", a delightfully absurd comedy of manners by Oscar Wilde. This is a play I most definitely want to see!

July: Te Puke Repertory Theatre, Park Lane, Te Puke: Wednesday 17th July or Thursday 24th July

"Call Girls" by James Carrick is a brilliantly written and uplifting comedy as it explores the relationships and troubles of a group of elderly widows living in a rest home in a small English seaside town. Another on my "must see" list!

July: Mid-winter Lunch: Wednesday 23 July at 12 noon: The Oak Tree, 1237 Cameron Road, Tauranga (at the previous Greerton RSA). Cost $27 per person.

There are no outings planned for August, but looking at the springtime to offer an outing to Eastwoodhill Arboretum with an overnight stay in Gisborne.
